

COLOR YOUR WORLD

Color has an emotional impact, grabs attention, and helps direct your reader to the things you want to emphasize. In our business and our lives, great color has great influence. Color sells, color tells a story. In today's world, communicating with color is no longer an option, it's a necessity. Katun helps you color your world with cost savings, quality products and friendly service.

Why Katun Color?

When you choose Katun color products for your printers, copiers, MFPs and other imaging equipment, you can count on excellent color reproduction, dependable performance and significant cost savings. You'll get great color and great value; Katun has been delivering the best value in the imaging industry for more than 35 years.

Quality & Reliability

Our years of experience give us the expertise to overcome technical challenges and provide expert product support. Katun toners, drums and parts are subjected to stringent quality standards; our color products are co-developed with leading manufacturers from around the world and are tested in our state of the art R&D laboratory in Minneapolis. We are able to analyze product performance in our environmental testing chambers to simulate real world conditions around the globe. That's how we can be sure that you'll receive color image quality and reliability that ensure complete customer satisfaction.

Billions of Pages

More than 30 billion pages have been copied/printed using Katun color toners. That's because tens of thousands of dealers, distributors and other imaging professionals worldwide have been using our imaging products for decades. We've earned their trust by consistently providing color supplies that meet their expectations while providing great value.

A Growing Line of Color Products

We provide copier, printer and MFP products for virtually every major OEM. And we are introducing more high-quality color products each month. The breadth and depth of our color offering is unsurpassed in the imaging industry.

Order Online

Order online or from our friendly knowledgeable representatives. The Katun Online Catalog gives you 24/7 access to our entire line of color products, while our sales and customer service representatives provide you with helpful information and friendly service.

Visit www.katun.com to register for our online catalog, or to contact our representatives.

KATUN®